01/25/2019		MINUTE ORDER: Before the Court is 52 plaintiff's Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order. The Court notes that summonses have been issued to plaintiff for the two defendants he added in his amended complaint—and who are named in his motion seeking a temporary restraining order—but that those defendants have not yet been served, or at least that plaintiff has not yet provided proof of service. However, the government answered plaintiff's amended complaint, which added the two new defendants, on November 1, 2018. ECF No. 39. In that answer, government counsel indicated that she was responding on behalf of all three defendants named in the amended complaint. Government counsel did not object to service as improper in that answer, nor did she otherwise object to the motion to amend the complaint. Therefore, the Court ORDERS the defendants to show cause why service of process on the two new defendants should not be deemed waived. In addition, if service of process has been waived, and if current counsel of record intends to represent all three parties named in the amended complaint, she should enter an appearance on behalf of all three. Any further government filings in the case should indicate that they are on behalf of all three defendants, and not only the Department of Justice, contra some of the government's recent filings, including 50 its motion to stay the case pending renewed government funding. Finally, the Court stresses that it is taking no position on the merits of the TRO, on which the Court will reserve judgment until it has received the government's response on the motion, which must be filed within 30 days after appropriations are restored. Signed by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 1/25/2019. (lccrc2) (Entered: 01/25/2019)
02/01/2019		MINUTE ORDER: In light of the restoration of appropriations, the stay in this case is lifted. Consistent with the Court's previous minute order, the Government shall respond to Plaintiff's motion for a temporary restraining on or before February 28, 2019. Signed by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 2/1/2019. (lccrc2) (Entered: 02/01/2019)
